

Proven Track-record

This performance history demonstrates not only the ability to create globally recognized franchises, but also to consistently translate them into lasting commercial value for partners. It underscores Lunar 22's capacity to deliver family entertainment brands that are both creatively resonant and reliably revenue-generating over time.

Reputation Focused

Lunar 22 is built on a proven track record of developing and scaling globally recognized family entertainment franchises. Its leadership and key creatives have played instrumental roles in shaping some of the most enduring properties in children's and family programming, contributing to brands that have generated significant viewership, consumer engagement, and licensed product revenues worldwide.

This experience spans iconic animated and live-action series, music-led properties, and cross-platform IP that have successfully travelled across markets and cultures. Drawing on this legacy, Lunar 22 applies established best practices in brand building, franchise architecture, and partner collaboration to every new property it develops. This combination of historical success and forward-looking execution positions the company as a trusted partner for platforms, licensees, and investors seeking high-quality, commercially resilient family entertainment.
